LIZ F.

Walking the french camino is one of the best experiences of my life.

I was a bit anxious before starting my Camino walk but once I was into it , I had a brilliant time.

Follow the Camino planned my trip and everything went seamlessly , so all I had to do was concentrate on walking ! Il be back for sure.

LARA K.

Wonderful all round experience

Follow The Camino delivered on everything they promised with accomodation selection great and transfer of luggage seamless. The actual walk was wonderful and matched or exceeded my expectations. Wouldn't hesitate to use them again for my next Camino. Loved it!!!!

RANDY R.

Follow the Camino Frances

The Camino Frances was the best vacation experience I've ever had. Fitness, new friends, and fantastic country. Highly recommended.

GRETA O.

Follow the Camino with an eighty year old

Follow the Camino was excellent. Hotels included dinner and breakfast. Clean and good food. Luggage transfer seamless. Well done.

On this section, you'll walk from Sahagun, a town renowned for its architecture, and finish in Leon, one of the greatest cities in Spain. The Camino de Santiago, or Way of Saint James, crosses the vast Castilian Plateau (at an elevation of 900m) and passes through its wealthy villages before ending in Leon, one of the most important kingdoms of mediaeval Spain before the country's unification.

Day
km

SAHAGUN

You will be staying in a traditional hotel in the heart of the town. If you have the time before your Camino begins, see the town's many churches and wander its ancient streets. It can really help to put the history behind your Camino in context before you start out!

Day
17.6 km

SAHAGUN -> EL BURGO RANERO

In Sahagun, you will leave Tierra del Campo behind, moving on through the cereal and grain-covered plateaux of Leon. Your destination is El Burgo Ranero, a small town typical of the province of Leon, where you will rest for the night.

Day
18.9 km

EL BURGO RANERO -> MANSILLA DE LAS MULAS

Going down from the plateau towards the capital of the province, Leon, you pass the pretty village of Reliegos. On the Camino you will have the chance to take the 'Via Traiana', another Camino route to Santiago de Compostela that originates in the city of Bordeaux.

Day
18.7 km

MANSILLA DE LAS MULAS -> LEON

You will continue alongside farming land before seeing the first signs of industrial activity ahead. From Portillo Hill you will be able to make out the beautiful city of Leon. The historic centre of Leon is well preserved and worth visiting. Over the course of time, Leon became the capital of the kingdom in the Middle Ages; a historic enclave on the pilgrim's road to Santiago de Compostela. Don't miss The Pulchra Leonina (the 'Sistine Chapel' of Spanish architecture) and the old Hospital de San Marcos.

Day
km

LEON

After breakfast we bid you farewell. When in Leon, it is a must-do for you to see the town's mediaeval quarter. From the impressive cathedral to the palace built by Gaudi, Leon is a marvellous city that many don't get the chance to explore when visiting other Spanish cities.
